

DRUG TRUST MUST OBEY FEDERAL LAW

Perpetual Injunction Is Issued Against Officers and Members.

PUT END TO THE BLACKLIST

No Discrimination Against Dealers Who Cut Rates and Sell as They Please.

INDIANAPOLIS, IND., May 9.—The so-called drug trust, was perpetually enjoined to-day from continuing its operations by the entering of a decree to United States District Court for the District of Indiana, on the complaint of the United States government, filed by Joseph B. Keating, United States district attorney. The defendants, ninety-two in number, who are the members, officers, directors, agents and attorneys of the National Association Retail Druggists, Wholesale Druggists Association, Tri-Parite Proprietors, "Blacklist Manufacturers," "Direct Contract Proprietors," "Wholesale Contract Proprietors" and Charles C. Bonhaugh, are perpetually enjoined from combining and conspiring to restrain trade in drugs, fix prices by agreement, blacklist retailers who cut prices, or to refuse to sell any retailer on equal terms. All publication of blacklists are forbidden and all contracts covered by the charges are declared void.

The direct contract, serial number plan, is prohibited, as well as the securing of the adoption of schedules for the sale of drugs. Charles C. Bonhaugh was charged in the bill of complaint with being engaged in printing and circulating lists called black lists, which contained the names of druggists throughout the country who sold proprietary articles and medicines at prices less than those which the alleged combination ordered.

As charged, he would send a list each month to every retail and wholesale druggist in the United States who belonged to the association of those accused of cutting prices, and as a result of this these druggists were forced to sell at the prices named in the list.

It was further charged that those accused of cutting prices on proprietary medicines were unable to purchase any kind of drugs from the members of special associations. All such practices are perpetually enjoined.

NEWS GATHERED FROM SOUTHSIDE

Pipe Explodes in Mouth of Smoker, Who Narrowly Escapes Losing His Eye.

VIETOR MATTER IS DEFERRED

Large Crowd at Elks' Bazaar Last Night--Searching for Superintendent Allen.

Manchester Bureau, Times-Dispatch, No. 1122 Hull Street. Mr. Charles V. Green, a prominent resident of First Ward, was the victim of a very singular accident last night, and narrowly escaped losing one of his eyes.

Green had called in Dr. Broadnax to attend one of his children at about 2 o'clock yesterday morning, and he was on his way to the drugstore in company with the physician, when the accident occurred. Mr. Green was smoking a pipe, and a startling report was heard and the pipe exploded. A piece of the wood was splintered and one piece struck Mr. Green over his eye.

The whole thing was so sudden and, in fact, startling, that it was some time before either the doctor or Mr. Green could determine just what was the trouble. Mr. Green's eye was dressed by the doctor, and it is not considered serious.

Yesterday Mr. Green solved the mystery surrounding the accident. He had some small rifle cartridges in his pocket, and when he filled his pipe he did not notice that these were in the tobacco. When the fire struck the cap this caused the explosion.

Matter Is Deferred. The Conference Committee from the Board of Aldermen and City Assembly met last night to consider the matter of allowing E. K. Vietor exemption from taxation upon his warehouse in the city for a period of years.

Mr. R. D. Walker, representing the concern, was present, but owing to the fact that some important information was not in the hands of the committee, the action was postponed until Monday morning at 10 o'clock, at which time the committee will meet and dispose of the matter.

Those present at the meeting were Messrs. D. L. Toney, J. W. Moore, R. L. Patram and M. A. Campbell.

Search Being Made.

The telephone and telegraph wires are being kept busy in search of Superintendent Allen, who has been missing close on to two weeks. His brother, J. L. Allen, of Danville, is here, and is doing everything possible toward getting any information that will lead to the discovery of the superintendent.

It was thought for some time that Mr. Allen was with his sister, who resides at Elk Hill, Gloucester county. Mr. J. L. Allen talked three yesterday morning, and was informed that nothing had been heard of him since then.

Allen, just where the superintendent is, is a question that has now come to be a serious proposition, and his family is almost frantic with grief. Surely, if Mr. Allen is anywhere nearabout, he would have been heard from before this.

Elks' Bazaar Crowded.

Last night was the banner night as far as attendance goes, at the Elks' Bazaar. The crowd was large and the efforts of the treasurer were aided considerably.

The musical entertainment or concert given at the Manchester High School Glee Club was one of the best numbers that has been put on during the bazaar. Miss Kate Puller, of Richmond, also pleased the audience with her delightful rendition of "The Rose Tree."

At the Department Store there is a couch which is to be voted to the most popular Elks' home. Last night Chester Lodge was in the lead, with thirty-two votes, while Richmond Lodge has nine. This promises to be one of the most interesting contests.

The couch is made of leather, and is a handsome piece of furniture. The handsome cushioned sofa, cushion on the fancy box, donated by Mrs. O. T. Smith, of Baltimore, was won last night by Mr. B. P. Vaden.

Personals and Briefs.

The Manchester Elks' ball team practiced for the first time at Forest Hill yesterday afternoon, and as a whole, the team showed up splendidly. Duck "Ewing" Franklin, the backstop for the team, showed up in bad condition. It is hoped, however, that he will improve and be back in the lineup to the work. The team will practice next Wednesday afternoon.

Ernest Vaden was before the Mayor yesterday morning, charged with being disorderly. He was fined $1 and costs. The case against the late Hindoo, son of All Hindoo, charged with breaking a window in the store of Tunstall Brothers, was postponed.

Henderson Lodge, I. O. O. F., met last night and initiated two candidates.

Manchester Chapter, No. 48, Royal Arch Masons, met last night at Masonic Temple and conferred upon four candidates the Mark and past-master's degrees. This class came from Chester Lodge, No. 45. Following the session a delightful supper was served. John Onesty, accompanied by his wife and several other friends, left yesterday.

PALE, WEAK PEOPLE WATCH CAUGHT BY FISHERMAN

MADE STRONG AND ENERGETIC BY DR. WILLIAMS' PINK PILLS.

General Breakdown Caused by Deficient Blood Quickly Corrected by This Tonic Remedy.

A feeling of general weakness, poor appetite, loss of breath after the slightest exertion, and broken sleep are some of the symptoms of general debility. You may think that they have no relation to each other, and that you will worry along, hoping all the time to feel better soon. This is a mistake, for every one of the symptoms is caused by bad blood, which must be made pure and healthy before you will be restored again. A tonic treatment is necessary, and for this purpose there is no better remedy than Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

Mr. J. G. Haver, of 35 Willow St., Chelsea, Mass., says: "I was sick for a number of years from general debility and indigestion. I was never free from stomach trouble, and my nerves were shattered. The least excitement would make me feel as if I were dying. Sleep was restless on account of terrible pains in the small of my back. These pains would sometimes last for a month or two. My sight grew weak, there seemed to be a blur constantly before my eyes. I couldn't concentrate my mind on my work, and the attempt to do so completely exhausted me."

"I was finally forced to give up a position I had held for twenty-eight years. After trying several medicines without help, I read of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and bought a trial. They made me feel so much better and so much stronger that I started in business for myself here in Chelsea. I have never had a return of my former sickness, and cheerfully recommend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills as an excellent nerve and blood tonic."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have long been recognized as an excellent tonic remedy in cases of indigestion and general debility, where the stomach and bowels are out of order, and the blood is impoverished. They have also been especially successful in curing anemia, rheumatism, after-effects of the grip and fevers.

A pamphlet on "Diseases of the Blood," and a copy of our diet book will be sent free on request to any one interested.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists, or sent postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box, by mail order, to Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y.

terday morning for New York. The party will sail from that place on Saturday on the steamship Queen Louise, of the North German Lloyd Line, for Europe. The party will be accompanied by his native home and will be abroad about six months.

The School Board will meet on Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock of next week at the purpose of letting the contract for the High School building.

The City Assembly will hold its regular session to-night at 8 o'clock.

JUDGE RIVES MARRIED.

Popular Bachelor Jurist of Prince George Surprises Friends.

An interesting wedding, the first in the new Jefferson Hotel, was that yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock of Judge Timothy Rives, of Prince George county, Va., and Miss Mattie M. Warrenton, a charming and cultured lady of the same county. The wedding was a pleasing surprise to the many friends of Judge Rives in this city. The judge, a young lawyer and a former member of the City Democratic Committee.

The wedding was held in the parlor of the hotel, in the presence of a few witnesses, the unostentatious plan being the preference of the contracting parties.

Judge Rives and wife left the city on the 3:30 East Line train for their home at Prince George Courthouse. Judge Rives is widely known and universally esteemed in Richmond, where he greatly enlarged his circle of friends during the light-tinged service in the Constitutional Convention of 1901-'02. He was, until the adoption of the present Constitution, for twenty-two years judge of the Prince George and Surry County Courts. He was recently elected to the Commonwealth's Attorney, and since that time he has been widely known.

His wife, Miss Mattie M. Warrenton, is a charming and cultured lady of the same county. The wedding was a pleasing surprise to the many friends of Judge Rives in this city. The judge, a young lawyer and a former member of the City Democratic Committee.

MISSIONARY SPEAKS.

Addresses Woman's Society of Marshall-Street Church.

A large meeting of the Woman's Missionary Society of Marshall Street Christian Church was held Wednesday afternoon in the home of the president, Mrs. H. H. Melton, of No. 500 Monteiro Avenue, Barton Heights. About fifty ladies were present.

The parlors were tastefully decorated with roses and carnations, and Mrs. Melton, who has served as president of her society for five years, was a most pleasant hostess.

Miss Minnie Orvis, secretary of the Christian Woman's Board of Missions in Virginia, gave a very inspiring talk on "Deepening the Religious Life."

The principal address of the evening was delivered by Miss E. M. Macdonald, of Boughnour, India, who has been a missionary in that part of Asia for a number of years. Miss Macdonald spoke very touchingly of the power of religion in the home life of the woman, and of the work which she works. Her subject was the "Salvation of the Women of India," and she spoke of the methods employed in the work and of the need for more and better workers.

The address was followed by a delightful hour during which dainty refreshments were served.

TO EXTEND STREET.

Fulton Wants Connection with Government Road.

Considerable interest is manifested in lower Fulton in a proposition to extend Nicholson Street so as to connect it with the Government Road. The section involved is in the recently annexed territory. At present a plank walkway crosses a ravine, making connection between the two streets. There are no lights in this section, and residents of the neighborhood declare the way to be dangerous, especially at night. A bridge or fill over the ravine for a distance of some hundred feet would be a great benefit to the Fulton merchants and a convenience to the country people shortening the distance into town, and obviating the necessity of crossing the Southern Railway tracks.

Mayor Johnson Here.

Hon. James Iradell Johnson, Mayor of Hillsdale, N. J., is in the city as a participant in the Interstate "trap-shoot," being an expert with the shot-gun and the rifle. He is stopping with relatives at No. 704 East Franklin Street.

WATCH CAUGHT BY FISHERMAN

Lost in Pond Nearly a Year Ago, It Is Recovered.

LEATHER FOB DID THE WORK

Being of Light Weight, It Floated Against the Hook--Remarkable Story.

Since the days of Adam people have been telling of a watch that floated in a well-known fact that many of them have been discredited; but Mr. James A. Lawrence, of the Hotel Lawrence, claims to have "the real thing," and he probably has, for he cannot only produce "the goods," but many strong witnesses as well.

The story of Mr. Lawrence, concisely told, is this: He is a member of a fishing club of ten, which owns a pond on the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac Railroad, near the Laurel Reformatory. In June, 1906, Mr. Albert G. Boschen, who is a member of the club, dropped his watch into the pond while fishing from a boat on the pond. Last Saturday, nearly a year afterward, Mr. Lawrence took a little fishing trip, and had fine luck. He had caught pike, chub and perch, and late in the afternoon was drawing his line when he hooked something else. He knew what he had was not a fish, for there was no animation displayed. At first he thought it was a snag, but he continued to pull, and found when he finally drew up that it was a gold watch.

It turned out from the best possible evidence, that this was the watch of Mr. Lawrence's clubmate and friend, Mr. Boschen, which had been lost nearly a year ago.

Mr. Lawrence does not know how to explain the remarkable incident, other than to say that the watch had a leather fob attached, and this being lighter than the water, was in a position to catch his hook when it passed.

Was Greatly Surprised.

"I was greatly surprised when I drew in the watch," said Mr. Lawrence, when seen at his hotel last night, "but as soon as I saw it, I recalled that Boschen had told me he had dropped his watch overboard last Saturday. The next time I saw Boschen he asked me if I had been fishing lately. I said, 'Yes, I was up at the pond Saturday.' He asked me what I had, and I told him of the pike, chub and perch. I then said, 'I caught a nice gold watch,' and showed it to him. He recognized it as his at once, but didn't know how to believe my story."

Mr. Boschen had the watch repaired by A. P. Jahnke & Son, and Mr. Jahnke said last night that it had been repaired in first-class order, though it required an entirely new set of works.

The watch was dropped over at 2 P. M., and it showed on its face when recovered by Mr. Lawrence that, although it was in the water, it ran until 3:15 P. M.

All those whose names are mentioned in connection with the matter are well-known in the city. Mr. Boschen is a young lawyer and a former member of the City Democratic Committee.

HOW SERGEANT GOT MAN'S WATCH

Sergeant Brown, of the police force, secured last night a very valuable gold watch, chain and charms in a manner that would be novel even to the defectors of the light-tinged service.

As he got off a car at Ninth and Main Streets he felt something dangling about his legs, and, turning, discovered the watch swinging by its chain from a button in the back of his coat. The back of the car was crowded, and he had rubbed against a man named Cox who is said to be connected with a Richmond business concern, and in some way the chain of the watch became attached to a rear button, and when the officer of the law, who is supposed to catch pickpockets, got off, he took watch and chain with him. In fear and trembling he carried them up to the station, and there turned them over to the sergeant in charge.

The Passenger and Power Company was communicated with and informed that the watch was at the station, and it was but a short time after that Mr. Cox telephoned to the station house and asked that the timepiece be returned to him. Mr. Cox is a guest at Rueger's.

"AMERICA'S GREATEST RAILWAY SYSTEM"

THE STATE BANK REFUSES TO ANSWER

President Elliott Declines to Divulge Interest Paid to Former Treasurer Hechler.

Mr. C. W. Saunders, of the board of supervisors of Henrico county, and Mr. C. W. Wingfield, representing the school board of the county, who are a joint committee to investigate the payment of interest by the banks to the former treasurer of the county, received a setback yesterday when the officials of the State Bank of Virginia declined to give out any information with regard to the matter.

The American National Bank, which was also a place of deposit of the former treasurer, answered all questions of the committee. President Elliott, of the State Bank, wrote a letter to the committee stating that the bank would not divulge the personal affairs of its customers, and that nothing short of a positive order from the judge of the court would secure access to its books and papers.
